

'Doing more for less' - working together to deliver green infrastructure

Bedfordshire and Luton Green Infrastructure Consortium Conference
Friday 26th November 2010

Conference Presentations - click on the titles for more information

GI work in Bedfordshire and Luton - Laura Kitson, Bedfordshire and Luton Green Infrastructure Consortium

"More for Less" - Henry Cleary, Department for Communities and Local Government

Morning Workshops;

- GI and Health - Dr Fiona Head, NHS, and Sally Fishwick, Natural England
- GI and Ecosystem Services - Professor Jim Harris and Dr Paul Burgess, Cranfield University (link to article about Ecosystem Services and Planning)

GI and the 'Big Society' - John Gelder, Voluntary and Community Action

Afternoon Workshops:

- GI, Housing, Economic Development and the South East Midland Local Enterprise Partnership - Pippa Cheetham, O&H Properties, and Matthew Clifton, SEM LEP Development Team
- Community level GI planning and delivery - Guy Lambourne, Marston Vale Trust, Jon Balaam, Greensand Trust, and Cliff Andrews, BRCC

Project Displays

- Bedford and Milton Keynes Waterway
- Bedford Green Wheel
- Bedford River Valley Park
- Bedford Waterspace Strategy
- Central Bedfordshire Countryside Projects
- Chilterns Rural Development Programme
- Forest of Marston Vale
- Greensand Ridge Rural Development Programme
- Greensand Trust
- MKSM GI Design Guide
- Wrest Park

